declared potentially dangerous or dangerous if an injury or damage was sustained by a domestic animal, which, at the time of the injury or damage, was teasing, tormenting, abusing or assaulting the dog. No dog may be declared potentially dangerous or dangerous if the injury or damage to a domestic animal was sustained while the dog was working as a hunting dog, herding dog or predator control dog on the property of, or under the control of, its owner or keeper, and the damage or injury was appropriate to the work of the dog.

- (f) Upon designating a dog as dangerous dog or a potentially dangerous dog, the Court shall impose the restrictions on the owner of such dog as set forth in this Act and may impose such additional restrictions on the respondent as are appropriate under the circumstances of the case. hearing to be held pursuant to this Article to declare the dog dangerous or potentially dangerous.

- (b) Any Animal Services officer may impound any potentially dangerous dog or dangerous dog if the Animal Services officer has reasonable cause to believe that any of the mandatory restrictions upon such dog are not being followed or if the failure to follow such restrictions would likely result in a threat to public safety.
